

Contents

Acknowledgements IX

List of Figures XI

Introduction

Historical Imagination, Collective Memory, and the Historicization of Roman Law 1

PART 1

Guillaume Budé: Jus, Justice, and Dignity

1 Setting the Scene

Justinian's Digest and University-Based Jurisprudence 21

1 Corpus iuris civilis: Composition and Transmission 22

2 Law before Lawyers 27

3 Reform, Revolution, and Rediscovery 32

4 Modus docendi: The Methods of the Schoolmen and the Advent of the Studia humanitatis 46

2 Excavating, Restoring, and Redefining Jus at the Foundations of Humanist Jurisprudence 60

1 A Humanist, Not a Lawyer 60

2 The 1508 Annotationes: Answering—and Amplifying—the Call for Change 64

3 Hidden in Plain View: Radical Departure, Traditional Scholarship 73

4 Splitting Good from Fair: Accursius' Error and Budé's Entanglement 78

5 The Proper Method for Studying and Interpreting the Law 89

6 Jus as a Defining Characteristic of Justice and Man qua Man 101

7 Jus Has Been Given to All Mankind 109

8 Significance of Budé's Re-interpretation of Jus and Jus Gentium 115

PART 2

Ulrich Zasius: Jus, Jus Gentium, and Rights

3 Re-defining Jus to Restore Justitia

Ulrich Zasius' Methods in Word and in Action 119

- 1 Humanist First, a Lawyer Second 119
 - 2 Combining Methods: Historicizing Law to Observe Justice 123
 - 3 In Praise of the Law: A True and Useful Science 124
 - 4 Theory Meets Practice: Zasius Explains His Methods 139
 - 5 Ordinary Lecture, Exceptional Interpretation 146
 - 6 'What Is Justice; What Is Jus?' 146
 - 7 The Historical Necessity for and the Moral Authority of Lawyers and Jurists 154
 - 8 'In What Manner Is Justice Divided?' 158
 - 9 Methods in Action: Ex fontibus ad initium 161
- 4 Breaking with Tradition
- Jus Gentium as a Source of Universal Rights and Obligations* 165
- 1 Disentangling Jus Gentium, Defining Natural Law 165
 - 2 Defining Natural Law and Jus Gentium 167
 - 3 The First Three Qualities of Natural Law: Instruction, Sociability, and Preservation 169
 - 4 Jus Gentium as the Fourth Quality of Natural Law 175
 - 5 Before and Beyond the Lectern: Pairing Zasius' Lecture and Lucubrationes 178
 - 6 Elevating Jus Gentium 179
 - 7 Distinct, but Not Divided: The Double-Aspect of Jus Gentium 187
 - 8 Universal, but Not Unlimited: The Right to Resist and the Power to Punish 192
 - 9 Jus Gentium as a Cache of Universal Rights 197
 - 10 Jus Gentium as a Cache of Universal Obligations 199
 - 11 The Limits of Slavery 204
 - 12 The Trouble with Tyranny 211
 - 13 Implications of Zasius' Re-interpretation of Jus Gentium 216

PART 3

Andrea Alciati: Jus, Violence, and Imperium

- 5 Self-Evident Truths and Demonstrable Facts
Power, Politics, and Persuasion 221
- 1 Lawyer First, Humanist Second 221
- 2 Law and Violence: Alciati's Career in Context 228
- 3 The Art of Justice, the Power of Speech, and the Necessity of Jurists 250

6 The Tenacity of Violence and the Parity of Right

- Alciati's [Re-] Interpretation of Jus and Jus Gentium* 271
- 1 Equality Through Enmity: War-Making as State-Making 271
 - 2 Changing the Subject: Alciati's Radical Departure from His Humanist Peers 275
 - 3 The Trouble with Imperium: Alciati's Novel Departure from His Scholastic Predecessors 277
 - 4 Jus as Necessity in Action 282
 - 5 Homicide, Commerce, and War: Meticulous Meditations on Proximate and Remote Cause 288
 - 6 Slavery as a Marker of Imperium 295
 - 7 Rulers and Brigands; Superior and Inferior Princes 298
 - 8 Universal Empire Rejected 305
 - 9 Imperium Interrupted 308
 - 10 Contests Among Equals: Dueling as an Analogy to War 322
 - 11 The Practical Significance of Alciati's Novel Re-interpretation of Jus Gentium in Context 329
 - 12 Jus as a Marker of Equality in Humanist Jurisprudence 334

Conclusion

The Re-formation of Europe and the Turn to Jus Gentium 338

Appendix: Select Emblems by Andrea Alciati 351

Bibliography 369

Index 394