

Contents

Series Editor's Preface	VII
Acknowledgements	VIII
List of Tables and Figures	IX
Notes on Contributors	X

Introduction: "Sustainability through Participation? – National, Supranational and International Legal Perspectives"	1
--	---

Eva Julia Lohse and Birgit Peters

PART 1

Fundamentals

- 1 The Historical Perspective 19
Birgit Peters
- 2 Re-imagining Participation in the Anthropocene: The Potential of the Rights of Nature Paradigm 51
Paola Villavicencio-Calzadilla and Louis Kotzé

PART 2

National Perspectives

- 3 Comparative Administrative Law Perspectives – Europe, Latin-America, Africa 75
Eva Julia Lohse
- 4 Comparative Administrative Law Perspectives: China 116
Daniele Brombal

PART 3

The European Union Perspective

- 5 The Scope and Requirements of Public Participation in EU Environmental Law 139
Giacomo Gattinara and Magnus Noll-Ehlers

- 6 Supranational Concepts of Participation and Sustainability Impacting on Administrative Legal Systems 176
Cristina Praenkel-Haeberle
- 7 The Law of Public Finance 203
Matthias Valta
- 8 State Aid Law 231
Julius Buckler
- 9 Competition Law 252
Matthias Uffer

PART 4

International Legal Perspectives

- 10 The Human Rights Dimension 291
Angela Schwerdtfeger
- 11 The Case of Biodiversity Protection 320
Federica Cittadino and Emma Mitrotta
- 12 Climate Change Law 368
Omondi R. Owino
- 13 Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities' Participation Provisions in Negotiations on Conservation of Marine Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction 406
Violeta S. Radovich
- 14 The Law of Multilateral Development Banks 433
Michael Riegner
- 15 International Investment Law 458
Paolo Turrini
- Conclusions 491
Margherita Paola Poto

Annex 520

Index 523