

Contents

Preface	IX
List of Abbreviations	XIII

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART 1

Re-formation of Perspectives

1	Framework of the Conventional Debate	11
A	Bowett: Three Issues and One General Statement	14
B	Brownlie: Re-formulation of Bowett's General Statement	17
C	Beyond the Framework of Debate Set by Brownlie	20
1	Influence of this Framework over Current Arguments	20
2	Beyond the Consensus Framework	22
2	Great Confusion over the Right of Self-Defence: The Caroline Incident Revisited	25
A	Divisions over the Caroline Incident	26
B	Background to the Divisions: The Necessity Doctrine and the Self-Defence Doctrine	30
1	Necessity Doctrine	30
2	Self-Defence Doctrine	32
3	Difference in the Function of the Right of Self-Defence	35
C	Differences in the Concepts: Self-preservation Doctrine	36
1	Self-preservation Doctrine	36
2	Limits of the Self-preservation Doctrine	38
D	Perspectives	39

PART 2

Two Distinct Concepts

3	The Right of Self-Defence before World War I	43
A	State Practice	43
1	Justification for the Violation of the Territory of Another State	45
2	Justification for the Violation of the Flag-State Jurisdiction of Another State	55

- B Doctrine 69
 - 1 Mid-19th Century 71
 - 2 Late-19th Century and Later 75
- C Policing Concept of the Right of Self-Defence 79

- 4 The Right of Self-Defence as it Developed in the Inter-war Period 82
 - A The Basic Function of Self-Defence: Resistance to Acts of Aggression 84
 - 1 The Covenant of the League of Nations (1919) 85
 - 2 The Protocol for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes (1924) 88
 - 3 Rhineland Pact (Locarno Treaties) (1925) 90
 - 4 The Pact of Paris (1928) 92
 - 5 Summary of Section A 94
 - B Scope of the Inter-war Right 95
 - 1 The Problem of Defining Aggression 97
 - 2 The Existence of Limits: League of Nations Practice 110
 - 3 Vague Boundaries 119
 - 4 Precursor of Collective Self-Defence, and the Preconditions for Its Operation 124
 - C Significance of the Inter-war Period's Conception of Self-Defence: Self-Defence as Defensive War 136

PART 3

The Pre-1945 Right of Self-Defence

- 5 The Relationship between the Two Conceptions of Self-Defence 141
 - A Coexistence of the Two Conceptions of the Right of Self-Defence 143
 - 1 The Pact of Paris and Protection of Nationals Abroad 144
 - 2 The League of Nations Codification Conference 161
 - 3 The US-Mexico Mixed Claims Commission 163
 - B The Relationship between the Two Conceptions of Self-Defence 165
 - 1 The Right of Self-Defence in Customary International Law and Treaty Law 167
 - 2 Violations of Territory and Resort to War 169
 - 3 From Outlawry of War to Prohibition of the Use of Force 174
 - C 'Outlawry of War' and the Two Conceptions of the Right of Self-Defence 180

6	The Right of Self-Defence in the Travaux Préparatoires of the United Nations Charter	181
A	Formulation of the Non-use of Force Principle	183
1	The Formulation Process	184
2	From the Moscow Declaration to the Dumbarton Oaks Proposals	186
3	Deliberations at the San Francisco Conference	194
4	Conclusions of Section A	205
B	The Perception of the Right of Self-Defence as Policing Measures	206
1	Internal Discussions of the US Department of State	207
2	From Dumbarton Oaks to San Francisco	210
3	Theoretical Status of the Policing Conception of Self-Defence	211
C	'Insertion' of the Right of Self-Defence as Defensive War	214
1	From Dumbarton Oaks to San Francisco: The Two Contexts in Which the Right of Self-Defence was Discussed	215
2	The Birth of Article 51	219
3	Collective Self-Defence against Armed Attack and Individual Self-Defence against Aggression	223
D	The Meaning of the Right of Self-Defence in the Drafting Process of the UN Charter	228
	Conclusion	232
	Bibliography	245
	Index	272