

Contents

- Preface and Acknowledgments VII
List of Acronyms VIII
Notes on Contributors X
- 1 The Currency of Concurrent Powers in Federal Systems 1
Nico Steytler
 - 2 The Meanings of Concurrency 12
Anna Dziejic and Cheryl Saunders
 - 3 From Dualistic Autonomous Concurrency to Marbleised Permissive
Concurrency in American Federalism 32
John Kincaid
 - 4 Concurrent Powers as Doors to Legislative Innovation, Conditional
Powers as Gates to the Blind Alley: Some Swiss Illustrations 49
Eva Maria Belser
 - 5 What's Wrong with Concurrency? Comparative Reflections Based on Constitutional Reforms in Germany and Italy 70
Francesco Palermo
 - 6 Concurrent Powers in Italy: The New State-centred Approach and
Prospects for Reform 92
Paolo Colasante
 - 7 De Facto Concurrency in Spain 115
Carles Viver Pi-Sunyer and Mercè Corretja Torrens
 - 8 Concurrent Powers in the EU and Their Impact on the Powers of
Member States 139
Stelio Mangiameli
 - 9 Concurrency of Powers in the Russian Federation 164
Ivan Leksin and Viacheslav Seliverstov

- 10 Fiscal Federalism and Concurrence of Taxing Powers in Argentina:
A Historical Perspective 190
Miguel Angel Asensio
- 11 Concurrent Power and Local Interest in Brazil's Federalism 206
Gilberto M.A. Rodrigues
- 12 Concurrent Powers in South Africa 222
Jaap de Visser
- 13 Concurrent Powers in the Ethiopian Federal System 241
Assefa Fiseha and Zemelak Ayele
- 14 Concurrency in the 2010 Kenya Constitution 261
Conrad M. Bosire
- 15 Concurrency of Powers in Deeply Divided Countries: The Case of Yemen's Draft Constitution of 2015 279
Nico Steytler
- 16 Concurrency of Powers: The Zebra in the Room 300
Nico Steytler
- Index 351