PART I

The Good: The Role of New Space Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation Activities for Security and Sustainability

| | | |
|-----|--|----|
| 1 | From Outer Space to New Space's Benefits for Humankind | 13 |
| 1 | Outer Space, Global Commons and Common Heritage of All Humankind: Preliminary Remarks | 13 |
| 1.1 | Global Commons: An Overview | 15 |
| 1.2 | The Common Heritage of Humankind: An Overview | 23 |
| 1.3 | The Traditional Governance of Outer Space: A Global Commons or a Common Heritage of All Humankind? | 25 |
| 2 | The Emergence of New Space | 33 |
| 2.1 | From State to Private Sector Space Activities | 34 |
| 2.2 | The Example of the Italian Space Industry | 36 |
| 3 | New Space Activities: The Good, and Related Concerns | 39 |
| 3.1 | General Considerations | 39 |
| 3.2 | New Space Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation Possibilities (Security and Sustainability) and Related Concerns | 42 |
| 4 | Final Remarks | 44 |
| 2 | Earth Observation, Satellite Navigation and Human Rights: The EU and Italian Contributions to the UN Agenda 2030 | 47 |
| 1 | Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation: A Preliminary Overview | 47 |
| 1.1 | Remote Sensing and Earth Observation Satellites | 48 |
| 1.2 | Satellite Navigation Systems | 50 |

- 2 The Impact of Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation Activities on the UN Agenda 2030 and on Human Rights 51
- 3 The Contribution of the European Union and of the European Space Agency Space Activities to the Sustainable Development Goals 62
 - 3.1 EU Eyes on Earth: The EU Copernicus Program 64
 - 3.2 The EU Satellite Navigation Program: Galileo 69
 - 3.3 EU Eyes on Outer Space: The EU Surveillance Program 73
- 4 The Contribution of the Italian Space Industry to the Sustainable Development Goals 75
- 5 Final Remarks 78

PART 2

The Bad: Potential Threats to Privacy from New Space Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation Activities

- 3 Earth Observation, Satellite Navigation and Privacy: The International, European and Italian Legal Framework 81
 - 1 Monitoring and Threats to Privacy 81
 - 2 Privacy and Space Law: The 1986 United Nations Principles Relating to Remote Sensing of the Earth from Outer Space 83
 - 3 Privacy as a Universally-Recognised Human Right 86
 - 3.1 The Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the UN Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the UN 'Privacy Discourse': Overview 86
 - 3.2 Potential Application of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the UN Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the UN 'Privacy Discourse' to Outer Space Activities 90
 - 3.3 Legal (Lack) of Effectiveness of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the UN Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the UN 'Privacy Discourse' 92
 - 4 Privacy Protection in Regional Legal Systems: The Case of Europe 94
 - 4.1 The Human Right to Privacy and the Protection of Personal Data 94
 - 4.2 Privacy Protection within the Council of Europe 96
 - 4.3 The Protection of Privacy in the European Union 102
 - 5 Privacy and Personal Data Protection in Italy 111
 - 6 Final Remarks 113

- 4 The Use of Satellite Data in International and European Regional Courts: The Case-Law of the European Court of Human Rights and the European Court of Justice 114
- 1 Judicial Balancing of Security and Privacy: The Case of Satellite Data in Judicial Proceedings 114
 - 2 The Use of Earth Observation Images as Evidence in International Courts: The International Court of Justice, the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and the International Criminal Court 116
 - 3 The Use of Earth Observation Images as Evidence in European Regional Courts 119
 - 3.1 The European Court of Human Rights 119
 - 3.2 The European Court of Justice 120
 - 4 The Use of Satellite Navigation Data as Evidence in International Judicial Proceedings 122
 - 5 The Use of Satellite Navigation Data as Evidence before the European Court of Human Rights and the European Court of Justice: Privacy Issues and the Critical Role Played by the Proportionality Test 123
 - 5.1 The Proportionality Test: Overview 123
 - 5.2 The Legal Framework of Proportionality within the European Convention on Human Rights 125
 - 5.3 The Legal Framework of Proportionality within the European Union 127
 - 6 The Admissibility of Satellite Navigation Data as Evidence in Proceedings before the European Court of Human Rights 128
 - 6.1 Targeted Surveillance and Satellite Location Data 130
 - 6.2 Bulk Surveillance: The Relevance of Geo-Location on Privacy 136
 - 7 The Admissibility of Satellite Navigation Data as Evidence in Proceedings before the European Court of Justice 138
 - 7.1 Targeted Surveillance and Satellite Location Data 139
 - 7.2 Bulk Surveillances: The Relevance of Geo-Location on Privacy 141
 - 8 Final Remarks 144
- 5 The Use of Satellite Data in Italian Courts 146
- 1 Preliminary Overview on Evidence in Italian Judicial Proceedings 146
 - 2 Earth Observation Images as Evidence in Judicial Proceedings and Privacy 152

- 2.1 The Use of Earth Observation Images in Judicial Proceedings 152
- 2.2 Privacy Concerns Related to Earth Observation Images in Investigation Activities 155
- 3 Satellite Navigation Data as Evidence in Criminal Proceedings 161
 - 3.1 Satellite Navigation Tracker Devices 162
 - 3.2 Satellite Location Data Captured by Interceptions of Telematic Communications 165
 - 3.3 Remote Searching of Computer Systems 168
 - 3.4 Access to Communication Data Stored by Telecommunication Providers 170
 - 3.5 Possible Different Classifications of Satellite Geo-Tracking and Their Related Impact on the Need for Prior Authorisation as a Privacy Guarantee 172
- 4 Satellite Navigation Data as Evidence in Civil Judicial Proceedings: Labour Disputes 175
 - 4.1 The Legal Framework: Privacy Guarantees Provided in Article 4 of the Italian Labour Act 175
 - 4.2 The Non-Application of Privacy Guarantees Enshrined in Article 4 of the Italian Labour Act in Relation to the Monitoring of Potential Employee Torts 178
 - 4.3 The Rise of the Privacy Discourse in Satellite Monitoring of Potential Employee Torts 180
- 5 Final Remarks 182

PART 3

The Ugly: Hostile Cyber Operations in New Space and Their Impact on Public Interests and Human Rights

- 6 Cyber Operations in New Space: Responsibility and Liability Issues 185
 - 1 Cyber Operations towards New Space-Related Activities: Preliminary Remarks 185
 - 1.1 Cyber Operations: Definitional Issues 185
 - 1.2 The Impact of Cyber Operations on New Space-Related Activities, Particularly on Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation 188
 - 2 Responsibility and Liability Issues in New Space 191
 - 2.1 The Concepts of Responsibility and Liability: Overview 191

- 2.2 The Law Applicable to Responsibility and Liability in an International and Transnational Perspective 193
 - 3 Definitional Issues in the New Space Era 196
 - 4 State International Responsibility and Liability for Cyber Operations towards New Space Facilities and Activities Prior to the (Attempted) Launch of Space Objects 198
 - 4.1 General International Law Provisions: Overview 199
 - 4.2 'On-Earth Cyber Operations' before the (Attempted) Launch and Issues Related to the Application of General International Law Rules on State Responsibility 200
 - 4.3 Cyber Operations and the Emerging Approaches of the European Union and Italy 211
 - 5 State Responsibility for Cyber Operations Perpetrated in Outer Space, and Liability for Damages Caused by Cyber Operations after the (Attempted) Launch of Space Objects 213
 - 5.1 The Outer Space Treaty and the Liability Convention: Overview 213
 - 5.2 Interpretative Issues and Concerns Related to the Regulation of Responsibility and Liability for Cyber Operations in Outer Space or after the (Attempted) Launch of a Space Object 216
 - 5.3 National Implementation: The (Bad) Example of Italy 221
 - 6 Responsibility of International Organisations for New Space Cyber Operations 223
 - 7 Responsibility and Liability of Individuals and Private Entities for New Space Cyber Operations 225
 - 7.1 Individual Criminal Responsibility for New Space Cyber Operations Occurring on Earth or in Outer Space before or after the Attempt to Launch a Space Object 225
 - 7.2 Private Civil Obligations to Compensate Damages Deriving from New Space Cyber Operations before the Attempt to Launch a Space Object 231
 - 8 The Need for Specific Cybersecurity International Provisions Applicable to New Space Activities: The Missed Opportunity of the Tallinn Manuals 233
 - 9 Final Remarks 236
- 7 Cybersecurity in New Space: Soft Law and Transnational Private Regulation 237
 - 1 (Lack of a Universal) Cybersecurity Definition 237
 - 2 (Lack of a Universal) Cybersecurity Regulation 239

| Conclusions 265 | | |
| 1 | The Good: Outer Space and New Space Relevance for Security, Sustainable Development and Human Rights: The Case of Earth Observation and Satellite Navigation Technologies | 265 |
| 1.1 | The Contribution to the UN Agenda 2030 | 265 |
| 1.2 | Outer Space and New Space Relevance for Security, Sustainability and Human Rights: Effects in Terms of Legal Qualification and Governance | 266 |
| 2 | The Bad: The Human Right to Privacy under Threat | 267 |
| 2.1 | New Space Privacy Risks and the International Universal Legal Framework: The Need to Revise the Existing Regulation | 268 |
| 2.2 | The Protection of Privacy by European Regional Systems: The Need to Implement Hermeneutical Approaches or to Implement Existing Legal Rules | 269 |
| 3 | The Ugly: Hostile Cyber Operations in New Space as a Risk for Privacy and Public Interests | 271 |
| 3.1 | Issues Related to Post Factum Reactions | 271 |
| 3.2 | The Need for Preventive Actions | 273 |
| 4 | Soft Law and Transnational Private Regulation: A Remaining Necessity for Hard Law? | 274 |
